This endorsement attaches to and forms part of the above Workers Compensation policy (Policy).

Statutory Liability

Where you undertake work under a contract in writing with a Principal, we will indemnify the Principal against liability under s127 and 129 of the Return to Work Act 1986 (NT) (Act), to a Worker employed by you who has suffered an injury for which you would be liable under the Act.

It is a condition precedent to our liability to indemnify the Principal that:

1. you are liable to pay compensation under the Act; and
2. you are entitled to indemnity under the Policy; and
3. you and the Principal have entered into a contract in writing prior to the circumstances upon which indemnity is being claimed by the Principal; and
4. the Principal complies with the Policy limitations, terms and conditions of the Policy as if the Principal was the Insured under the Policy; and
5. the Principal's entitlement to indemnity is subject to and limited by the Policy period, terms and conditions of the Policy entered into by you as if the Principal was the Insured under the Policy.

PLEASE NOTE that this Principal's Indemnity Extension endorsement does NOT extend to indemnify the Principal for claims made against the Principal at Common Law

Waiver of Subrogation

Our normal rights of subrogation against the Principal entitled to be indemnified by this Policy are waived. In circumstances where the Principal is not indemnified by this Policy, our normal rights of subrogation will apply. It is understood and agreed that this endorsement is subject to and limited by the Policy limitations, terms and conditions and does not extend to any undertakings, terms or conditions in any contract between you and the Principal.

Sanctions

You're not insured under any section of this endorsement where a claim payment breaches any sanction, prohibition or restriction under United Nations resolutions or the trade or economic sanctions, laws or regulations of Australia, the European Union, United Kingdom or United States of America, or any local autonomous sanctions.
